

Carmel Wiseman

Carmel is a recently retired lawyer who has lived in the Parkgate community since 1991. She can often be seen walking the local trails with her dog and various assorted family members and friends in tow.

Carmel practised primarily in the area of professional regulation, most recently with a health profession, and is an experienced litigator and administrative lawyer. She has expertise in governance and strategic planning. She continues to advise professional regulators as a consultant.

Carmel enjoys gardening, cooking, reading, travelling and spending time with her extensive family and friends.

