

Susan Chan

Susan, with her husband Kit, raised their two children in Windsor Park area for the past 25 years.

Susan is transitioning into semi-retirement after a career in Procurement and Supplier Relations in the private and public sector. In the last 10 years, while at ICBC, she focused on managing procurement programs/guidelines to promote simpler processes and procedures to support the company's business and technology transformation initiative. Susan was appreciated for her straight talk, at times un-conventional perspectives, and ability to making things happen.

She is a certified Supply Chain Professional and holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from SFU.

A health and fitness enthusiast, Susan has held positions of President and Treasurer for 6 years with The Quay Health Work Club, a lower Lonsdale non-profit society owned and operated by members.

Susan is keen to helping create opportunities for everyone to live life better in her community.
