

Natalie Wagorn

Growing up in North Vancouver, Natalie was involved in a range of programs and services offered through Parkgate Community Centre. Having recently returned to the North Shore, she is excited to give back to her community, leveraging her professional experience, to support an organization from which she and so many others have greatly benefited.

Natalie holds a CPA and completed her Bachelor of Commerce at Queen's University. During university, Natalie volunteered with a range of student organizations focusing on workplace equity and supporting entrepreneurial initiatives in Africa.

Today, Natalie works as an advisor on some of British Columbia's and Canada's largest infrastructure projects. In her free time, you can find Natalie spending time with family and friends, skiing or hiking on the local mountains, walking the Spirit Trail or planning her next vacation.

