

Shaun Wysiecki

National leader in financial services • Woodlands, North Shore

Shaun and his wife live in Woodlands, on the North Shore, with their two children and two dogs. He is passionate about helping communities thrive and has extensive volunteer experience on a number of boards.

Shaun was a City Councillor for his hometown at the age of 23 and spent time as Acting Mayor during his term. He also held the position of chair for a number of committees — including recreation, strategic and financial planning, and the public library.

Shaun believes in authentic leadership, collaboration, and finding opportunities to increase civic engagement. With over 19 years in financial services, Shaun currently holds a national leadership role with a chartered bank.

When he's not busy with his family or career, Shaun spends time volunteering with Junior Achievement and exploring the wilderness of the North Shore.
